Dear Participant,

Henley & Partners, the global leaders in residence and citizenship planning, are bringing their 6th Global Residence & Citizenship Conference to Dubai.

With over 200 people in attendance at last year's event in London, the conference will once again address important and current issues for private clients who are spreading their assets and activities internationally and are looking to relocate for personal or business reasons.

It is a special honor to welcome at this year's conference the following guests:

- Hon. Dr. Denzil Douglas, Prime Minister of St. Kitts & Nevis
- Hon. Tonio Fenech, Minister of Finance, Economy and Investment of Malta

- Prof. Patrick Weil, University of Paris-Sorbonne and Yale Law School
- Simon Anholt, Independent Policy Advisor to Governments
- Prof. Drew Markson, Thomas Jefferson School of Law

Who should attend?

This conference is designed for private clients and their advisors, tax lawyers, immigration specialists, relationship managers of private banks, family offices and trust companies, all of whom advise wealthy families internationally and wish to educate themselves regarding the latest developments in residence and citizenship planning.

The conference will provide an up-to-date overview of the most attractive international residence and citizenship solutions and will be conducted in a professional and friendly environment, in the presence of leading experts in this expanding field.

A new feature this year is a social program for accompanying persons. A way to include your spouse in your trip to Dubai and to give the accompanying persons a forum in which to foster new friendships within the industry, we offer a mix of cultural and outdoor activities as part of this program; a taste of all that Dubai has to offer.

We look forward to welcoming you at the Madinat Jumeirah Mina A'Salam Hotel for our conference in November.

Yours sincerely,
